Max René

The Dane Max René is an award-winning designer and photographer, who has already twice received the "Watch of the Year" award for his clean, timeless watch design. This is not the only reason why watches by Max René are mentioned in the same context as the world's most esteemed design collections.

Once again, with the BERING Max René collection, this creative mind has achieved a merging of different and fascinating worlds to create a unique unit, combining Danish minimalism with high functionality and noble materials.

TIME FOR CHANGE

One watch, many looks. The simple but ingenious idea: a watch whose appearance you can change. The strap can be replaced quickly and easily using simple sliding technology – and already your designer watch has a breathtaking new look. The watch strap is super easy to replace: just push out the straps and then push in the new ones.
